

Stupid Nintendo Games - Reprise

Song by Nicholas Karr and Scott Wozniak, Lyrics transcribed by 44nifty

(1 minute, 20 seconds of instrumentals only)

We saved the world

From a blue border quarrel

I just have to live with it for the whole rest of my days

It's a lot when you've been taught this thing is worse than you thought

But there's one small thing that makes it all okay

Stupid Nintendo Games!

(That blue border won't stand in my way!)

These Stupid Nintendo Games!
